

DEC 1ST 2018 PRE-MED SEMINAR

The Korean American Medical Student Association of Texas is hosting a pre-med seminar at Texas A&M University for any interested students!

Topics include how to navigate through the pre-med track, prepare for the MCAT, start the medical school application, find volunteering/research opportunities, in addition to tips and personal advice from current medical students. We will also have a Q&A session for any questions that students may have.
