

California State Global Internship

Your future is now: Begin an OPT Internship

Who we are

---

Stanley Prep is an educational provider that specializes in matching students with internships. We have partnerships with diverse companies throughout Los Angeles, and the surrounding area, with stellar feedback and excellent mentorship opportunities. An internship with our partners means relevant and in-depth experience in your field of study, as well as excellent networking connections in the US. We strive to partner with companies that will utilize their expertise and give a broad exposure to organizations related to their field of study, professional networking outlets, and insight into their work ethic with critical feedback as to better equip our students for private or public sector careers, and much more.
