Networking Lunch at AIChE Annual Meeting (11/13/2016, Wed)

Korean Institute of Chemical Engineers (KIChE)– US Chapter cordially invites Korean graduate students / postdocs to a networking lunch at the AIChE (American Institute of Chemical Engineers) Annual Meeting 2019 in Orlando, FL.

The AIChE Annual Meeting is the annual international education forum for chemical engineers. Leading university and industry partners from Korea have actively participated in the meetings to learn more about the most cutting edge developments in chemical engineering as well as future recruiting opportunities.

We will have a free lunch event on Wednesday, November 13 at 11:30 am in Orlando, FL for graduate students/postdocs in chemical engineering or related areas to develop professional networks and to promote their careers.

If you are interested and available to attend, please RSVP to parkye@ucmail.uc.edu and y.jang@ufl.edu by Saturday, November 9. Hope to see you there!
